

Argentina Wine Awards 2010 - International Judges

Dirceu Vianna Junior MW

Nationality: Brazilian

Resident: UK

Year MW: 2008

19 years in the Wine Industry.

"Junior" is originally from Brazil, where he studied Forest Engineering and Law, before moving to the UK in 1989. He joined the trade in 1990 and was the first South American male to become a Master of Wine, receiving the 'Viña Errazuriz Award' by the Institute of Masters of Wine for excellence in the business of wine.

He is based in London where he is the Wine Development Director at Coe Vintners (Essex) and Barwell and Jones (Ipswich). He is a speaker in several international events, a wine educator, a technical consultant and a judge at selected wine competitions around the world. Apart from that "Junior" is an independent wine writer and has made several appearances on radio and television in South America.

October 2009